

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 8, 1900.

LOCAL MATTERS.

On from tomorrow at 6:29 a. m. and at 5:45 p. m. High water at 7:45 a. m. and 8:09 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section, rain tonight, followed by clearing Tuesday, much cooler tonight, except on the coast; on Wednesday, fresh to brisk westerly wind.

DEATHS.—Mr. Anna L. Moore, widow of Councilman William S. Moore, died at her home, 109 Duke street, Saturday night, after a protracted illness, which was well known throughout the city and was highly esteemed. She was seventy-eight years of age and is survived by five sons—City Councilman Alton T. Moore, Norman Moore, Joseph Moore, William Moore and Joseph W. Moore. Mrs. Moore was a daughter of the late Captain Daniel Jones. The funeral will take place from St. Mary's Catholic Church, at which the deceased was a member, tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Miss Ellie Rice, wife of John L. Rice, aged thirty-six years, died at her residence, 932 north Columbus street, late Saturday night. The deceased was survived by a husband and two children. She was a daughter of Mr. Patrick Foley, and was esteemed by all who knew her. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from St. Mary's Church.

Mr. Luman H. Payne died at his home in Warrenton Saturday night. He is survived by his wife and eight children. She is well known in this city and was a sister of Mrs. George Washington. She was a lady of an excellent spirit—kind, thoughtful and considerate—and the many friends and acquaintances she made during her life sincerely lament her death.

PRISONERS.—The following cases were disposed of today: Robert Martin, charged with drunk and indecent conduct, was fined $5.

William Williamson, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Twelve negroes, charged with gambling, were fined $5 each, one $10, and two were dismissed.

Eugene Pollard, colored, charged with highway robbery, was dismissed.

Joseph Lee, colored, charged with assaulting and beating his brother, was fined $5.

William German, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $5.

Two Oden, colored, charged with assaulting and beating Jennie Gordon, also colored, had his case continued.

Eva Baker, charged with selling liquor without a license, was fined $20.

A case taken up in the street was returned to its owner.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and mild until about 12 o'clock when it became cloudy and about 1 o'clock the morning it began to rain. Five prisoners were at the station house.

THE CHURCHES.—The temperature yesterday was mild, but the weather was threatening, with light showers of rain in the evening. The churches were all fairly well attended and the pulpits were occupied by the resident clergy. At St. Paul's Church in the morning Rev. P. P. Phillips, instead of preaching a sermon, gave an account of the church affairs for the year. He spoke of the number of deaths that had occurred among the congregation since his six years' rectorship and said during that time of the vestrymen had died. He stated that the ladies' sewing society intended to purchase a new furnace for the church and said that the fund for the proposed new organ now amounted to upwards of $900. At Trinity M. E. Church in the evening the Episcopate Brotherhood, a society organized in honor of the late W. N. Berkley, who was for so long connected with that church, held special services for their 43 o'clock. These services will be held every Sunday evening until further notice and Rev. Mr. Jeffers will be assisted in their conduct by other pastors in the city.

POINTS.—A free fight occurred in a room on north Lee street about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, in which a number of young men participated. As a result of the fracas Samuel Haney and John Mumford were locked up at the police station with the charge of felonious assault on E. W. Brummit, a soldier from Fort Hunt. The two men were given a hearing this morning. Brummit, whose face was badly battered, claims that he entered the fracas in an effort to make peace, when he was struck him with a pair of brass knuckles. Mumford and Haney were fined $20 each for being engaged in the row.

CITY COUNCIL.—The first regular session of the City Council after the summer recess will be held tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock when business which has accumulated during the summer will be acted upon. The Board of Aldermen will probably elect a president to succeed the late W. H. Mumford, whose death occurred during the recess. So far but two names have been mentioned in connection with the position—Messrs. Theo. Ballenger and J. T. Sweeney. A majority of those present, under the rules, can elect officers.

POSITION SECURED.—Mr. M. M. Reid, master mechanic of the Southern Railway, recently applied to the Virginia Polytechnic Institute for a young man to fill a position in the shops under his direction. Mr. F. G. Baker, a recent graduate in mechanical engineering, has just secured the position.

While walking along the military road leading from Fort Myer to Georgetown Saturday night, John W. Burgess, ninety years of age, was overtaken and killed by a runaway horse, ridden by Dennis W. Coleman, a negro. A coroner's jury was summoned, and after a hearing Coleman was held responsible for the death of the old man. The case was beyond control. Coleman was thereupon released.

PERSONAL.—Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Stella Kaufmann, daughter of Mr. Joseph Kaufmann, to Mr. Aaron Katz. The ceremony will take place at Orla Fellows' Hall, in this city, on Wednesday evening, October 24, at 7 o'clock.

Miss Sadie Markell Field, who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Decatur Markell, left Thursday for her Alexandria home—[Warrenton Index].

Colonel Milton M. Wheat, who has been visiting Mr. Lyons, in Georgetown, during the past week, will leave for New York in a few days.

Miss Virginia Corse, who has spent the summer in Colorado, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. Cabell, of Lynchburg, is the guest of Mrs. C. W. Wattle, on Columbus street.

Miss Isabel Opie, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Esther Brooks.

Mr. L. H. Dolan of the Southern Ry. who has been critically ill with typhoid pneumonia, is slightly improved.

The officers of the Alexandria Light Infantry will go to Richmond tomorrow evening to attend the meeting of the company officers of the 70th Virginia regiment which will on Wednesday elect officers for the regiment.

Miss Alice Wise, who has been on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Peter Wise, in this city, has returned to her home in Leesburg.

Mrs. J. T. Williams, of Keyser, W. Va., is visiting Mrs. Edgar Warfield on south Fairfax street.

A very charming progressive whist party was given on Tuesday night by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Dawes in honor of their guest, Mrs. Brockett, of Alexandria.—[Norfolk Landmark]

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—The October term of the Corporation Court opened today.

The docket was called and cases set. The quo warranto case against Frank Price to test his eligibility as police commissioner and to hold a government office at the same time was set for hearing next Friday. Mr. S. G. Brent, who appeared for Mr. Price, gave notice that he will file an affidavit tomorrow setting forth that while the proceedings are brought by Commonwealth's Attorney Marbury they were instigated by Mr. F. C. Spinks.

The case of Commonwealth vs. J. T. Beckham, Jr., indicted for entering a house, was set for hearing on Tuesday, the 16th.

The case against John Barley was not called, as that case has not yet been before the grand jury, and this not being a grand jury term.

Carney and Colcock vs. Jas. Grigg et al.; final decree, dismissing case.

Citizens' National Bank of Alexandria vs. Mary Barton; judgment for plaintiff for $680.

Jos. E. Williams vs. J. W. Emmert & Co.; dismissed by order of plaintiff's attorney.

H. F. Robertson vs. Julia McGraw; dismissed by order of plaintiff's attorney.

W. U. Varney, of Alexandria county, was admitted to practice in this court.

CLAIMS HE WAS ROBBED.—On Saturday night about 10 o'clock John Christian, a colored employee of the New Washington Brick Company, claimed he was robbed of $7 in notes in the grocery store kept by William H. Peck, at the corner of Queen and Payne streets, by a negro who was in the store at the time. He first charged Jos. Lee with the crime, but later recognized a negro named Eugene Pollard as the offender. Subsequently he averred that Pollard was not the guilty party. The case came before Mayor Simpson this morning and in the absence of testimony Pollard was dismissed.

CRAP GAME STOPPED.—A crap game in progress at Lucas Hall, on north Lee street, was brought to an abrupt close early Sunday morning by the appearance of Sergeant Smith, and Police-Dean, Wilkinson, Knight and Beach. The hall was crowded and the participants had no idea that a raid would be made. Seeing they were hemmed in they submitted to the inevitable and fifteen of them were arrested. They were arraigned in the police court this morning and fined $5 each. Two others charged with a similar offense were dismissed.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.—The County Supervisors met today at the County Courthouse and audited the accounts as usual. It was decided to place the school accounts in the hands of Mr. James Bayne for an examination, the same as he made last year of the other county accounts. The examination is to go back for four years.

The matter of the improvement of the old turnpike road from the south end of the Long bridge to Fort Kanawha, in the county was dismissed, but final action deferred.

PARTIALLY HEARD.—In the Circuit Court, Judge Nicol presiding, on Saturday argument in the case of B. M. Smith vs. the Pyrites Mining and Chemical Company of Virginia removed from the Circuit Court of Louisa, was partially heard and the case was continued for further hearing at Manassas next Friday, being removed to the Circuit Court of Prince William.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—A joint meeting of the city democratic committee and the working committee of the Bryan, Stevenson and Rixey Club will be held at Sarepta Hall tonight. Plans for the conduct of the campaign will be made and reports of committees received.

GOLF.—Mr. Robert White, of Cincinnati, arrived here today and visited Shuter's Hill, where he inspected the grounds on which it is proposed to lay off golf links. Other grounds will also be inspected before a selection is made.
